Paul had more than 30 years of litigation experience. He was a dedicated trial lawyer who represented individuals and businesses since 1981. Paul successfully resolved, through settlement, hundreds of cases. Likewise, he was not afraid of the courtroom. He obtained numerous seven-figure jury verdicts.

Paul represented individual and businesses wronged by others. Paul's courtroom demeanor was aggressive yet always professional. Many of the referrals Paul received were from attorneys who represented opponents in previous contested matters. Paul's experience included a wide variety of contested matters including extensive trial presentations involving ownership disputes, lender liability, employment agreements, covenants not to compete, product liability and serious personal injuries.
