

Kathryn L. Farnsworth Attorney

klf@dewittllp.com

608-252-9215

Madison

Based in the Madison office, Kate supports partners practicing in the Personal Injury area. Kate has experience drafting discovery materials, researching complex legal issues, investigating new cases and assisting in trial preparation.

Kate represents individuals and families who have been devastated by injury or death. She champions her clients' cases with one goal in mind – justice. In doing so, Kate works to obtain full and fair compensation from insurance companies. Through her work holding powerful interests accountable, Kate hopes to secure a financial future for her deserving clients and their loved ones, while also bringing some measure of fairness back into her clients' lives.

While in law school, Kate worked as a student attorney for Wisconsin Innocence Project, where she investigated cases and represented clients during the post-conviction appeals process in order to prove their actual innocence. Kate also participated in the Mock Trial program as a member of the board and a competitor in several national competitions.

Awards

- Dean's List – University of Wisconsin Law School
- Phi Beta Kappa Society
- National Society of Collegiate Scholars
- Dean's List – George Washington University Columbian College of Arts & Sciences

Expertise

- Litigation
- Personal Injury

Education

- J.D., University of Wisconsin Law School
- B.A., The George Washington University

Affiliations

- State Bar of Wisconsin
- Dane County Bar Association
- Wisconsin Association for Justice
- Women's Caucus