(262) 754-2876

Greater Milwaukee

Laurel is an attorney in the Business and Intellectual Property practice groups in the Greater Milwaukee office. Her focus is on preparing efficient and quality research and writing to provide clients with the tools to make informed, focused decisions.

Her prior legal experience includes working as a Summer Associate with Dewitt LLP and as an intern with the NCAA. While in law school, Laurel was heavily involved in the Marquette Sports Law program, serving as the Chair of the Sports Law Competition Board. Laurel also fine-tuned her writing skills as an editor of the Marquette Law Review and as a member of the Marquette Sports Law Review. She also served as the Chair of Marquette's mentorship program, helping further Marquette's collaborative and welcoming environment.

Outside of work, Laurel enjoys spending time with her beagle, Emmie and watching the Colorado Avalanche win the Stanley Cup.
