Madison

When faced with the tragedy of the death of a loved one, or when serious bodily injuries result from the negligent conduct of others, people from all walks of life and throughout Wisconsin have turned to Michael for help. During nearly 40 years of law practice, he has been consistently successful in helping individuals and families obtain fair compensation for their injuries, damages and losses.

Consistently ranked among the best personal injury lawyers in the United States, Michael has represented clients suffering injury or death in automobile, motorcycle and boating accidents, construction and workplace accidents, unsafe products and premises claims. He has obtained compensation for clients ranging from modest amounts into many millions of dollars. He has extensive court and jury trial experience. Because of his experience, he is regularly called upon by other lawyers to serve as an arbitrator and mediator in litigation disputes.

In addition to being a skilled advocate and courtroom litigator, Michael is known for his empathy towards others and his qualities as a good listener and negotiator. For Michael, clients and their families are his most important priority. He is especially touched and gratified when former clients continue to tell him that the help he provided during a difficult time made a significant difference in their lives.
