262-754-1306

Metro Milwaukee

Paul Hoefle has over 30 years of litigation experience. He is a dedicated trial lawyer who has represented individuals and businesses since 1981. Paul has successfully resolved, through settlement, hundreds of cases. Likewise, he is not afraid of the courtroom. He has obtained numerous seven-figure jury verdicts.

Paul represents individual and businesses wronged by others. Paul's courtroom demeanor is aggressive yet always professional. Many of the referrals Paul receives are from attorneys who represented opponents in previous contested matters. Paul's experience includes a wide variety of contested matters including extensive trial presentations involving ownership disputes, lender liability, employment agreements, covenants not to compete, product liability and serious personal injuries.

Paul is very active in scouting and serves as District Chairman for the Potawatomi Area Council. The National Lutheran Association on Scouting has awarded Paul the Servant of Youth Award for his years of service to the Scouts and Church. Paul is an avid outdoorsman enjoying hunting, camping, gardening and his apple orchards with his wife Mary Beth and their three children.
