Alex Zahn helps individuals and families plan for the future, protect what matters most, and navigate important life transitions. As a member of DeWitt's Trusts and Estates Practice Group, he focuses on estate planning and probate administration, offering practical guidance tailored to each client's circumstances, priorities, and long-term goals.

Alex works closely with clients to develop estate plans that reflect their wishes and provide peace of mind for them and their loved ones. He also assists personal representatives and families through the probate process, helping them understand their responsibilities, meet legal requirements, and navigate what can often be a difficult and emotional time.

In addition to his trusts and estates practice, Alex has experience in real estate, business transactions, and civil litigation. His broad legal background enables him to identify issues that may extend beyond traditional estate planning and to collaborate with colleagues across DeWitt to address clients' needs.

A native of Columbus, Wisconsin, Alex values the relationships he builds with clients and the communities he serves. He takes a thoughtful, approachable, and responsive approach to his practice, emphasizing clear communication and practical solutions that help clients make informed decisions with confidence.

Alex graduated magna cum laude from the University of Wisconsin Law School, where he was elected to the Order of the Coif. Prior to joining DeWitt, he practiced law in Watertown and Monroe, Wisconsin.

Outside the office, Alex remains actively involved in his hometown community. He serves as president of the Columbus Country Club and founded the Columbus Youth Golf Foundation. He enjoys golf, traveling, reading biographies, following Wisconsin Badgers athletics, and spending time with family and friends.
