Rachel is a seasoned attorney specializing in a diverse array of practice areas, primarily focusing on estate planning, guardianship and conservatorship, real estate, and agricultural and business law. Rachel provides comprehensive counsel to clients, guiding them through complex legal matters with precision.

With a primary focus on estate planning, Rachel assists clients in crafting plans for both taxable and nontaxable estates. Her practice includes drafting of wills, trust agreements (both revocable and irrevocable), charitable giving plans, special needs plans, and various other estate planning instruments.

In addition to estate planning, Rachel also excels in estate administration matters. She advises personal representatives, trustees, and beneficiaries, offering strategic guidance throughout the administration process, including navigating disputed matters. Rachel also brings extensive experience in real estate law to her practice. She assists clients in all aspects of real estate transactions, from acquisition and leasing to financing and development.
