Tyrice is an attorney in the Business, ESOP, and Real Estate practice groups in the Greater Milwaukee office. His practice focuses on assisting businesses with their legal needs, navigating the complexities of real estate transactions, and supporting companies in developing and managing ESOPs.

Tyrice was also a former law clerk at DeWitt, where he conducted extensive research, drafted memos, and actively participated in hearings and client meetings. While in law school, Tyrice volunteered with the Marquette Law School Volunteer Legal Clinic and served as a member of the Student Advisory Board. As a legal intern, Tyrice also researched Michigan's driver's license restoration policies, creating a comprehensive guide to aid residents in restoring their driving privileges.

Outside of the office, Tyrice enjoys traveling, exercising, exploring history, and watching sports.
