

Jack C. Koepke

Attorney

- 612-305-1434
- jkoepke@dewittllp.com
- Minneapolis

Service Areas:

- Business

Education:

- J.D., University of Minnesota Law School
- B.S., Marquette University

Admissions:

- Minnesota

Jack brings a wealth of experience in business law to the firm, focusing on private equity transactions, corporate acquisitions, and real estate bond transactions. Jack has represented private equity sponsors in acquisitions and add-on transactions, working with financial institutions, co-investors, buyers and sellers.

His expertise extends to drafting senior and mezzanine financing documents, including note purchase agreements, security agreements, and pledge agreements. Jack also has experience coordinating borrower-side real estate transactions and advising clients on complex securities and asset purchase agreements.

During law school, he served as Managing Editor for the Minnesota Journal of International Law.

Affiliations

- Minnesota State Bar Association – Member
- Japan America Society of Minnesota – Board of Directors and Treasurer

Notable Representations

- Represented a large corporation in the re-syndication of existing term and revolving financing with commercial banks, and the conversion from cash flow to asset-based lending
- Represented a private equity sponsor in the acquisition of a target company for $20 million in an equity transaction and subsequent add-on transactions
- Represented a developer in the acquisition of a complex 55-unit scattered site low-income housing development, including real estate, financing, equity, bond, and acquisition documents
- Represented a developer in a series of low-income housing development acquisitions in numerous states, in excess of $300 million

