

Natalie M. Bach

paralegal

- 612-305-1431
- nbach@dewitllp.com
- Minneapolis

Service Areas:

- Divorce & Family Law

Education:

- B.S., magna cum laude, Lynn University
- Paralegal Certificate, Hamline University

Natalie joined the Family Law Practice Group of DeWitt in its Minneapolis office as a paralegal. She is a value-driven paralegal with experience successfully supporting and managing the caseloads of multiple attorneys. Her skills include adeptly navigating the management of client deadlines, communication among parties, witness scheduling and document filings in federal and state courts.

Natalie is well-versed with trial preparation and has managed and created trial exhibits, trial notebooks, binders and more. She is also adept and assisting with legal research utilizing Westlaw and other tools as needed.

While in college, Natalie interned at the National Law Center on Homelessness & Poverty (NLCHP) where she Created and implemented a new program tracking database to optimize Law & Policy file management system. She also interned at Tuckers Solicitors while studying abroad in London, England, where she learned extensive client service skills and the ins and outs of assisting lawyers with each case.

Natalie graduated from Lynn University with a Bachelor's Degree in Criminal Justice and obtained her Paralegal Certificate from Hamline University.